What we will provide:

•Food, coffee and booze (from 7:00 p.m. Friday till 6:00 p.m. on Sunday).

•A place to sleep (for our out of town guests)

•Recording devices, source information, technical experts for each group.

•Transportation around Lancaster for each group.

•Enough structure to be able to create a piece in a day's time.

•Enough freedom to create earth-shattering art of monumental proportions.

•A chain store.

What you will provide:

•Your creative talents. In groups of five, you will completely devise a journey. We will need you to write, do voices, find music, interview people, help edit, time pieces, analyze the architecture, etc. We are specifically asking people with a variety of talents and abilities to take part in this experiment. Bring what you bring.

•A willingness to work with a group in a supportive and collaborative environment.

•Your current e-mail, street address and phone number for a contact sheet

•Fun!
